

White Mountain Adventure Camps for Military Teens!

Dedicated Camps for Military Teens With and Without Disabilities

A $20 registration fee includes lift tickets, lessons, equipment rental (if needed), and food/lodging at the Appalachian Mountain Club's Highland Center in Bretton Woods – NO ADDITIONAL FEES!

Transportation assistance is available, including limited airfare funding for January sessions. Personal care aids welcome.
All camps are open to military teens from anywhere in the US!

White Mountain Adventure Camps - Bretton Woods Only for Military Teens With Disabilities

Session 1 – For Teens with Physical Disabilities

January 6-9, 2012 – Click HERE to register

Session 2 – For Teens with Developmental or Cognitive Disabilities

January 20–23, 2012 – Click HERE to register

Participants: 12 teens, ages 14-18 (military youth only)

Designed specifically for teens with physical disabilities, as well as, developmental or cognitive disabilities, these camps feature adaptive sports activities in the spectacular White Mountains of northern New Hampshire. Join us for: Nordic and alpine skiing, dog sledding, ice skating, sled hockey, and tubing! The Appalachian Mountain Club's Highland Center in Bretton Woods will provide accessible accommodations and meals, and will serve as base camp for the weekend's events. University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension Youth Development Educators, Northeast Passage Therapeutic Recreation Specialists, the Bretton Woods Ski Area staff, and other dedicated professionals are committed to providing a safe and memorable experience for all campers.

White Mountain Adventure Camps – Bretton Woods Only for Military Teens Without Disabilities

Session 3 – February 19–22, 2012 – Click HERE to register

Or (Register for one week only)

Session 4 – February 26–29, 2012 – Click HERE to register

Participants: 24 teens per camp, ages 14-18 (military youth only)

Teens will have an opportunity to enjoy Nordic and alpine skiing, dog sledding, ice skating, hockey, tubing, and snowshoeing! The Appalachian Mountain Club's Highland Center in Bretton Woods will provide accommodations and meals, and will serve as base camp. Participants may also construct snow shelters, experience animal tracking, and study winter ecology. These camps will give youth the chance to work together, socialize, play and learn through new activities. All activities will be conducted by trained staff in and around the spectacular White Mountains of northern New Hampshire.

UNH Cooperative Extension, White Mountain Teen Adventure Camps 55 College Road, Pettee Hall G05, Durham, NH 03824

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
University of New Hampshire, U.S. Department of Agriculture and N.H. counties cooperating

Funding for the Camps has been made available through a partnership between the Department of Defense, Office of Military Community & Family Policy and the United States Department of Agriculture/ National Institute of Food & Agriculture.

Charlotte Cross, University of NH Cooperative Extension (603) 862-2495 -- EMAIL militaryteen.camp@unh.edu