

2009 Teen Conference Military Scholarship Application

Come to 4-H Teen Conference at UNH June 28th - July 1st!

Full scholarships for Teen Conference are available to military youth courtesy of the NH Operation: Military Kids (OMK) Program. This overnight event will take place on the UNH campus and includes a variety of fun educational activities and social time (please see brochure for specific information). Remember, there will be lots of kids like you who have never been to Teen Conference before, so give it a try!

This application and completed registration forms must be returned to the Operation: Military Kids office by May 27, 2009. You will be notified by mail that you are receiving a scholarship.

Additional Requirements and Statement of Agreement:

Please read the following statements and initial next to each one to indicate that you plan to follow through with the program requirements

_____ I understand that if I am given a military scholarship to attend Teen Conference, I will comply with all policies, behavior codes, and guidelines.

_____ I understand that I must attend an orientation meeting at my UNH Cooperative Extension County office prior to Teen Conference.*

If you are chosen to receive a scholarship, you will be sent a listing of Cooperative Extension County Offices and 4-H Youth Development Educators. You must contact the 4-H Youth Development Educator at your County office for orientation meeting information. UNH Cooperative Extension educators will be given your name beforehand, so they will know you have been chosen as a delegate. Most orientations are held in late May or early June, but specific dates will vary according to County.

If you understand and are willing to fulfill these requirements, please sign below. Thank you!
