Who Is Invited

Youth 12 & over and their dogs are welcome with/without parent/guardian.

Youth under 12 are invited, with their dog but,

a parent/guardian or adult must stay with youth under 12.

Come for the weekend, or just come Saturday, 8:00am to 5:00pm

Dog Information

All dogs must have a current health form and a rabies certificate (within the past three years.) Dogs need to be under the control of their handlers and not aggressive toward other dogs or people. The dogs stay in the dorms with the campers at night, so crate trained, quiet dogs only, please.

Schedule

Arrival time is Friday night between 6:00 – 7:00 PM. Most families bring a picnic dinner. Soft drinks will be available, but no meal is served. Sandwiches can be purchased at New Boston Pizza in New Boston village (1 mile).

Pick up will be Sunday 11:30 PM.

Facilities

The 4-H dog weekend is held on 125 acres at the 4-H Youth Center in New Boston NH. Staff and campers stay in two buildings that have all necessary facilities. The campers will be provided with a cot and mattress. Campers will have 24-hour supervision. Boys and girls are housed in separate buildings or on separate floors. A camp kitchen with dining pavilion provides the eating facilities. Level fields provide space for all sports and other outdoor activities. The T.R. Langdell Arena or the C & J Barn will be used for activities if it rains.

Transportation

All youth are responsible for transportation to and from New Boston.
