

“Getting Ready to Sell at a Farmers Market”

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension, Rockingham County, will be offering a 2 hour workshop for growers who are currently selling or are considering selling at farmers markets. Agricultural Resources Extension Educator Nada Haddad will cover how to get ready for farmers markets, product quality, how to display farm products, merchandising, safety, customer service and the dos and don'ts at the market.

June 9, 2011 Auburn Safety Complex
55 Eaton Hill Road, Auburn
6:00 - 8:00 pm

Thank you to the Griffin Free Library for co-sponsoring this workshop.

Directions to Auburn Safety Complex:

Take Route 101 to Exit 2. Take Hooksett Road toward Auburn. Go left at the first stop sign onto Raymond Road. Take the first left onto Eaton Hill Road. Turn right into the Safety Complex parking area.

The workshop is free. However, pre-registration is encouraged.

Call Deb Stevens at 603-679-5616 or email deb.stevens@unh.edu or contact Nada Haddad at 603-679-5616 or nada.haddad@unh.edu or

to register on-line go to this link:

http://cecf1.unh.edu/formbuilder/forms/form352_FrmMktRg.htm

extension.unh.edu