

ASIAN LONGHORNED BEETLE & EMERALD ASH BORER TWILIGHT MEETING IN NASHUA, NH

Tuesday, August 17th (5:30 to 7:30 pm) in the Nashua Public Library, 2 Court Street, Nashua, NH 0306003475; phone: 603-589-4600

AGENDA

Moderator: Margaret Hagen, UNH Cooperative Extension, Agriculture Resources

- ◆ 5:30 pm: "Lurking in the Trees" — A Film about the Asian Longhorned Beetle.
The Nature Conservancy
- ◆ 6:00 pm: An Update of the ALB Infestation in Worcester, MA.
Dennis Souto, U.S. Forest Service
- ◆ 6:15 pm: Life cycles of Asian Longhorned Beetle (ALB) & Emerald Ash Borer (EAB).
John Weaver, NH Dept of Agriculture, Markets & Food
- ◆ 6:30 pm: Management and Eradication of ALB and EAB — The Challenges.
Stan Swier, UNH Cooperative Extension
- ◆ 6:50 pm: Concerns of the NH Forest Industry.
Jon Nute, UNH Cooperative Extension, Forest Resources
- ◆ 7:05 pm: How Moving Firewood Threatens Our Forests & Forest Pest Detection Survey Projects in NH. Jennifer Weimer, NH Division of Forest & Lands (DRED) & Karen Bennett, UNH Cooperative Extension
- ◆ 7:20 pm: A Call for Volunteers to Participate in this Saturday's Beetle Blitz – How to Scout for ALB & EAB. John Weaver, Dept of Agriculture, Markets & Food

This project is sponsored by New Hampshire Department of Agriculture, Markets & Food, with the assistance of University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension Service, NH Audubon Society and the Division of Forest & Lands (DRED), and supported by USDA, APHIS (Animal Plant Health Inspection Service).

