

Heading towards home....across Arkansas, where we really feel “east” again, surrounded by green trees all the way. Then across the Mississippi at Memphis and on to Nashville. No time for music, but a couple hours at Opryland resort is well-spent exploring the extensive conservatories which enclose the hotels and convention center.

A Postcard from Cathy Neal