

New development (left) contrasts with a mission garden and chili ristras drying in the Oldtown section of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The house was on the market for $4 million dollars. The stark landscape is native by design and blends with the surrounding environment. In this development there was no turfgrass or irrigation.

A Postcard from Cathy Neal

