

Farm Structures: Do It Yourself

To help farmers considering building construction projects this year (i.e., Pole Barns) the Coös County Conservation District, Coös County UNH Cooperative Extension and host Perras Lumber will offer an educational workshop.

Wednesday, June 17, 2009
10:30 A.M.
Perras Lumber, Route 3, Northumberland

Dr. Stan Weeks, Agricultural Engineer, from upstate NY, currently serving as a resource for UNH Cooperative Extension will be on-hand to discuss choosing proper building materials: PT wood, fasteners, insulation and shingles, then we'll take a look at them.

USDA Representatives from FSA and NRCS will also be on-hand to update you about applicable building programs.

No registration is required, open to all interested.
