COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

September 23, 2009

Greetings,

We're gearing up for a fun and exciting training called "Preparing Volunteers for Today's 4-H." The attached flyer describes some of the details. We hope you'll spread the news and consider joining us on November 7th. The training is open to anyone who is interested (not just 4-H volunteers). Here's the important additional information you'll need to know:

- The $10 registration fee includes lunch!
- Registration will be paid in full for all enrolled Coös County teen and adult volunteers. Thank you Coös County 4-H Advisory Council. Do not pay when you register.
- Please register early. The deadline for registrations is noon on November 5.
- On-line registrations are preferred. Telephone enrollments are accepted too. If all else fails, give us a call at the Coös Extension 4-H Office and we'll get you signed up.

Let's have a good showing from Coös County 4-H! Feel free to holler if you have any questions or need help registering.

Sincerely,
