

Merrimack County 4-H Youth Development Announces Food Show & Public Speaking Recognitions

Over 150 youth and parents gathered recently at Pembroke Academy for the 4-H Public Speaking and Food Show event. Twenty-one adults from the community served as evaluators of the youth projects. Youth were represented from several towns in Merrimack County including Concord, Loudon, Pittsfield, Chichester, Canterbury, Warner, Boscawen, Penacook, New London, Sutton, Dunbarton, and Webster.

Named to represent Merrimack County at the State Public Speaking event at Pembroke Academy on May 30th are: Ross Lougee, Victory Workers 4-H; Jordan & Molly Dahl, Milleville 4-H; Julia Jones, Sutton; and Jocelyn Tanner, 4-H Junior Leaders.

Invited to the fall 4-H Roundup is: Chad Lougee and Harrison Worster, Victory Workers 4-H. Receiving a judge's special food award was Julia Jones, Sutton, and Katie Downs, Pittsfield, received the most votes for the 4-H Cook Off.

UNH Cooperative Extension programs and policies are consistent with pertinent Federal and State laws and regulations on non-discrimination regarding age, color, handicap, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or veterans status.