

2010 NORTHEAST REGIONAL SOCIAL SCIENCE SYMPOSIUM

AT UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MEMORIAL UNION BUILDING, STRAFFORD ROOM

APRIL 12, 2010

9:00 AM TO 4:30 PM

AGENDA

(PRESENTATION TITLES WILL BE REVISED AS THEY BECOME AVAILABLE)

- 8:00 Registration and continental breakfast
- 9:00 Welcome and opening remarks
Rachel Feeney, UNH/Northeast Consortium
Morning Moderator: Ken La Valley, UNH/New Hampshire Sea Grant
- 9:10 “An overview of social science, economics and management data related to historical New England fisheries.”
Karen Alexander, UNH/Ocean Process Analysis Laboratory
- 9:30 “NEFSC/Management perspectives”
Eric Thunberg, NOAA NEFSC Social Science Branch
Steve Correia, Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries
- 10:20 Break
- 10:30 “Fisheries employment data”
Dan Georgianna, UMass School of Marine Science and Technology
- 10:50 “The “Atlas” project and oral history data”
Madeleine Hall-Arber, Massachusetts Institute of Technology Sea Grant
- 11:10 Discussion
Facilitator: Troy Hartley, VIMS/Virginia Sea Grant
- 11:50 Poster/display overview
Troy Hartley, VIMS/Virginia Sea Grant
- 12:00 Lunch and poster/display session
Afternoon Moderator: Earl Meredith, NOAA NEFSC Cooperative Research

- 1:20 Keynote Speaker
“East and West – The Path Ahead for Social Science Data”
Susan Hanna, Oregon State University
- 2:20 Break
- 2:30 “The Gloucester community project”
Sarah Robinson
Angela Sanfilippo, Massachusetts Fishermen’s Partnership
- 2:50 “Equity and community aspects of catch share/sector programs”
Seth Macinko, University of Rhode Island
- 3:20 “Behind the scenes: Development of a New England groundfish sector”
Jennifer Litteral, Island Institute & the Port Clyde Community Groundfish Sector
- 3:30 Discussion
Facilitator: Troy Hartley, Virginia Sea Grant
- 4:10 Closing remarks
Rob Robertson, University of New Hampshire
Susan Abbott-Jamieson, NOAA Office of Science and Technology
- 4:30 Closing