STARTING OVER: NEW CHOICES...NEW DIRECTION

Personal Financial Management Instructional Course

This two-hour course is presented to New Hampshire bankruptcy filers in order to meet the necessary requirement for personal finance education, as specified by federal bankruptcy law. Upon completion of this course a certificate of completion will be provided to each participant. UNH Cooperative Extension does not pay or receive fees or other consideration for the referral of debtor students to our course.

Instructors will either be trained Family and Consumer Resource county educators or instructors supervised by these educators. All of the county educators have received training in Starting Over: New Choices...New Direction from Suzann Enzian Knight, M.O.E., M.S., CFP, Family Resource Management Specialist and Faculty with University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension who has been giving instruction and writing publications/curricula on Personal Financial topics for over 20 years.

Courses are generally offered on weekdays and evenings but vary by location. Course dates and times can be found by contacting your county Cooperative Extension office listed on the reverse side or by going to our web site: <http://extension.unh.edu/Money/Money.htm> and clicking on "check your county offerings".

Services are provided without regard for students' ability to pay. The course fee will be waived for those who demonstrate financial hardship by submitting a copy of the NH Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) – Division of Family Assistance Notice of Decision with this registration form.

Sponsor is approved to issue certificates evidencing completion of a personal financial management course in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. Approval does not endorse or assure the quality of a Provider's services.
