invites
UNH Students, Faculty, and Staff to:

Issues & Ice Cream
The first in a series of discussions sponsored by UNH Cooperative Extension to build collaborations for research and activities vital to the state of New Hampshire and beyond.

THE COURAGE TO CARE
Understanding Bullying & Bystanding; Promoting Empathy and Civility

Come share research, experience, ideas, and affinity about bullying, meanness, empathy and civility, and enjoy delicious ice cream from the UNH Dairy Bar!

Tuesday, November 6
12:30 to 2:20 p.m.
Alumni Room, New Hampshire Hall

Coordinated by PLEY (Positive Learning Environments for Youth)
Area of Expertise with:

• Malcolm Smith, Ph.D., Extension Associate Professor, UNHCE
• Rick Alleva, Ed.D., Field Specialist, Youth & Family Team UNHCE
• Thom Linehan, M.S., Field Specialist, Youth & Family Team UNHCE
• Mike Middleton, Ph.D., Chair, UNH Department of Education
• Jane Stapleton, M.A., Co-Director, UNH Prevention Innovations
• Jeff Frigon, M.S., UNH Browne Center for Innovative Learning
• Ellen Semran, M.Ed, LGBTQA Coordinator, UNH Office of Multicultural Student Affairs
• and more invited guests!

The University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension is an equal opportunity educator and employer. University of New Hampshire, U.S. Department of Agriculture and N.H. counties cooperating.