Ratibida pinnata
Yellow Coneflower

Leaves grow from the center of the plant forming a cluster.

As the plant grows, new leaves are more divided and more irregularly shaped.

The newly germinated seedling has rounded leaves with short hairs.

Leaves of Ratibida pinnata can be very irregular. These leaves were all taken from a single plant.

The bushy leaves stretch upward and multiple tall stems develop.

Bright yellow flowers rise high above the foliage.