4-H ANIMAL AND EXHIBITORS GENERAL RULES

- Entry Deadline, September 1, 2017. Online only through Deerfieldfair.fairentry.com
- Deerfield Fair Open Show – See Deerfield Fair Website
- Camper Space – Reserve through Deerfield Fair by September 15, 2017. See Deerfield Fair website.

Country Kitchen discount tickets for 4-H families will be available at the 4-H Country Kitchen. Must show 4-H ID to purchase tickets. Thanks for your support.

Exhibitors need to check in with superintendents and show Intent to Show forms, lease forms, and original registration paper. Health checks will be done. Intent to Show and Record of 4-H Lease Form must be available at all times. No animals other than those listed on both Intent to Show and entry forms may be brought. All animals must be owned/leased by exhibitor, meet NH Department of Agriculture's health standards and be vaccinated for rabies. Animals must have been born by June 1st. Grade male animals can be shown only in feeder or market classes. All sick animals will be sent home at the discretion of the superintendent. All exhibitors are expected to check and maintain their individual animals throughout the length of the fair. See specific shows for check-in times. Exceptions are for school days and arrangements must be made through the superintendent prior to arrival at the fair. As this is the 4-Her's project, no one but 4-Hers will be permitted to work on animals after they have arrived at the fair. No adult assistance. Exhibitors must bring their own feed and containers for water unless otherwise noted. 4-H members are solely responsible for showing and handling their animal(s) in the ring. If a 4-H member receives assistance from another 4-Her, the owner must be at head of animal. All youth must participate in Fitting & Show class and that animal must also be exhibited in type or market class. Classes will be placed according to the Danish System. Judges' decisions are final. Direct criticism or interference with judge or fair/show officials before, during, or after the show is prohibited. A knowledge quiz may be given during the fair. If a youth decides to advance to Junior Fitting & Show division at any time during the show year, they may not go back to showing as a novice. Exhibitors are responsible to know what classes they show in. If a class is missed, it cannot be made up. Any exhibitor who misses Fitting & Show Classes may exhibit in type classes but for ribbon only, no premiums will be awarded.

Each exhibitor is limited to two breeds (goats 3 to include grades and swine 3 to include cross breeds) and only one premium per class for each breed. All group entries must have been shown as individuals. In NH 4-H shows, where type (breed) classes are stipulated for registered animals, a youth may exhibit a grade female in the show if they own/lease no more than one other eligible animal of that species.

All 4-H project animals are shown at the risk of the 4-H owner/lessor. Any damage to persons or property are the legal, financial responsibility of the 4-H member/family who owns/leases the animals. 4-H members, parents, and leaders shall at all times conduct themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship and treat others with respect, cooperation, and courtesy. 4-H members are sole responsibilities and under direct supervision of parent/guardian during entire duration of the fair. All 4-H exhibitors staying at the fairgrounds overnight must have the parent/ guardian signed permission and name a chaperone over 21 years old, designated by parent(s), who has agreed to be responsible for the 4-Her. All youth must be under direct supervision of parent or designated adult appointed by parent. Youth need to be staying in camper units with parents/designated chaperon. No tents allowed. Rockingham County 4-H assumes no responsibility for supervision of youth at the fair.

Appearance of Exhibitors: 4-Hers must be neatly and cleanly dressed. 4-H attire is white shirt or blouse and skirt or pants that are a solid color in green, khaki or white and shoes that are closed at the toe and in the back. 4-Hers must wear numbers provided in the show ring. Corporate/farm sponsorship identification is unacceptable at 4-H show ring.

No vehicle can move on the fairgrounds until given permission from fair authorities.

Michelle Paquette, 4-H Superintendent Dairy Goat Show, 603-673-6615

Erin Asselin, 4-H Superintendent Dairy Goat Show, 603-944-1183

All 4-H entries must be completed online through Deerfieldfair.Fairentry.com by Friday, September 1st.

FairEntry is also integrated with 4honline. This will allow you to connect your 4-HOnline animal intent registration information into FairEntry.

YOU MUST HAVE ANIMALS THAT ARE PARTICIPATING IN THESE EVENTS AND STAYING ON THE ROUNDS OVERNIGHT TO HAVE A CAMPER. ALL CAMPERS MUST BE PREREGISTERED. PLEASE REFER TO CAMPING FORMS ON BACK PAGE

PARKING IN THE G GATE AREA WILL BE IN RESTRICTED AREAS BY DEPARTMENT AND WILL BE VERY LIMITED. IF YOU HAVE NOT PREPAID FOR AN OUTSIDE CAMPER SPACE YOU MUST GET A DFA-DG STICKER FROM THE OFFICE TO PARK ANY VEHICLES OR TRAILERS IN THIS AREA. MOST VEHICLES WILL PARK IN THE GENERAL PARKING LOT. ALL VEHICLES/CAMPERS MUST HAVE A DFA-DG STICKER VISIBLE ON THE WINDSHIELD OR THEY WILL BE TOWED.

ALL GOATS MUST BE VACCINATED FOR RABIES

Also read Deerfield Fair General Rules and 4-H Animal and Exhibitors General Rules.

All goats must originate from nonquarantined herds under state supervision, must be clinically free from all infectious and communicable diseases including parasites, contagious ecthyma (sore mouth), pink eye, scabies, nor be progeny of any goats known to be infected with scrapie. Health, registration, and exhibit approval forms must be available at all times and shown at registration.

4-H Dairy Goat exhibitors and animals are to be on the fairgrounds by Friday at 8:00 pm. The superintendents recommend that exhibitors come in on Wednesday evening due to restriction on vehicle movement once the fair opens. If you need to attend school or work and would like to bring animals in on Wednesday, please contact the superintendents to make arrangements for care of your animals in your absence.

Pens will be assigned by the superintendent. Age of animals will be determined by the date of show. All animals must be properly registered and have legible tattoos. The exception to this rule is that unregistered animals may be shown in Fitting and Showmanship classes and Class 20. Kids must be registered or recorded grades and be at least 4 months of age. DAIRY BREEDS included in the show are: Alpine, LaManchas, Nigerian Dwarf, Nubian, Oberhasli, Saanan, Toggenburgs and Recorded Grades. Judging of 4-H Breed Classes is based on the ADGA Dairy Goat Scorecard. 4-H Fitting and Showmanship class judging will be based on the 4-H Dairy Goat Fitting and Showmanship Scorecard.

All exhibitors must participate in the appropriate Fitting and Showmanship class. Exhibitors may show two animals per breed per class. All animals shown in Dam and Daughter, Produce of Dam and Herd classes must have been shown in individual breed classes. All animals over 24 months of age must be in milk in order to be shown. List full registration name on entry form. Exhibitors must furnish their own hay, grain, tack and milk stand (if you have one). All exhibitors are required to clean his/her own pens prior to dismissal on Sunday. No adult will be permitted to assist with the care of any animal while on the fairgrounds.
