Rick.Morrill.NFCS@gmail.com

Rick works as a forester in Northern Vermont, where he formed a family run consulting company, Northern Forest Conservation Services, LLC, with his wife Dawn Morgan an ecologist, and father-in-law Ross Morgan a practicing forester with over 45 years in the woods. Their firm provides comprehensive land management and conservation services to landowners, land trusts, and public agencies in the northern forest region and northeastern US. Rick holds a Master of Forestry degree from the University of Maine and a BA in Environmental Studies from Bates College. Prior to becoming a consultant Rick served as the Baxter State Park Resource Manager, overseeing forest management activities in the Scientific Forest Management Area, a FSC-certified 30,000-acre demonstration forest in Northern Maine. Before working for Baxter State Park, he was a forester with the University Forests at UMaine Orono. Rick is a licensed forester in Maine and Vermont, a professional member of the Forest Stewards Guild, a member of the Society of American Foresters (SAF), and a certified forester through SAF. He has served on the Forest Stewards Guild Board of Directors since 2007 and has been chair since 2012.
