

2017 Economic Development Academy

Scholarship Information

Thank you for your interest in attending the 2017 Economic Development Academy. A limited number of scholarships are available to attend the Economic Development Academy. Scholarships are primarily available to members of our sponsoring partners: NEDA, NHEDA and MACDC/Mel King Institute (see below). Members should contact their respective association directly to inquire about scholarships, once you have registered for EDA. If approved for the scholarship, each organization will notify us that they have given you a scholarship.

Northeast Economic Development Association

Contact Anthony Capece; information about the process for application is below, the last page of this document.

(<http://www.nedaonline.org/>)

New Hampshire Economic Development Academy

(<http://nhedaonline.org/>)

Contact Andre Garron at agarron@ci.salem.nh.us

Massachusetts Association of Community Development Corporations/Mel King Institute

(<https://macdc.org/>)

Contact Mariela Renquist at MarielaR@macdc.org

In addition, there are a limited number of scholarships available for New England-based practitioners through UNH. If you do not receive a scholarship through Association membership, and you need a scholarship in order to attend the academy, please respond to the questions below and submit to Sharon Cowen at Sharon.Cowen@unh.edu. Please complete responses on a separate piece of paper and attach to an email with "EDA scholarship request" in the subject line.

Extension

2017 Economic Development Academy

EDA SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR LIMITED SCHOLARSHIPS BEYOND ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIPS
(SEE ABOVE)

1. Explain your role as it relates to Economic Development (in 150 words or less).

2. Please explain your need for a scholarship in order to attend the 2017 EDA.

3. How will attending the EDA benefit your work (volunteer or paid)?

NEDA UNH Economic Development Academy Scholarship Opportunity

Dear NEDA Members:

NEDA and the University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension are pleased to again offer the following scholarship opportunity to NEDA economic development professionals!

NEDA is partnering with the UNH Cooperative Extension to offer a $300 scholarship* for up to three NEDA member professionals to attend the UNH Economic Development Academy this fall. Details on the program including cost and the application process are below.

<https://extension.unh.edu/Community/Economic-Development>

An overview of the program can also be found on the NEDA website at <http://www.nedaonline.org/>

Application Deadline:
September 1, 2017
(or if the cap of 30 participants is reached)
(Maximum Class Size: 30)

Once you have been accepted in to the academy, send a copy of your academy application along with a short statement on your reason for attending the UNH Economic Development Academy to:

NEDA
c/o Anthony Capece
PO Box 508
West Sand Lake, NY 12196
or

Anthony Capece (anthony@centralbid.com).

Your application for the scholarship will then be reviewed for consideration by the Program & Services Committee. You will be notified by NEDA regarding your scholarship request within 5 working days of sending in your request. Good luck.

Best regards,

Anthony Capece
NEDA Interim Executive Director

*To be eligible for the scholarship you must be an active NEDA member in good standing as of the date of your application to UNH.