Code of Conduct

As a participant in a New Hampshire 4-H Event, you have the responsibility of representing the NH 4-H program to the public. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you as well as to 4-H. To do that you will need to:

- Attend all sessions in the planned program and participate fully.
- Follow established hours and room rules. YOU are responsible for knowing the rules of your event.
- Dress appropriately for each event. (follow the dress code when given)
- Use language and manners that are appropriate for a 4-H event. You are responsible for knowing what language and behavior is appropriate.
- Be in the assigned program area at all times (eg. dorms, motels, etc)
- Model respect for other persons in public areas.
- Know that the use of illicit drugs, alcohol, tobacco and fireworks are prohibited at all 4-H events.
- Treat program areas, lodging areas and transportation vehicles with respect and care. You will be responsible for any damage, theft or misconduct in which you participate.
- Help other persons in your group have a pleasant experience by making every attempt to include all participants in all activities.
- Live up to your highest expectations for yourself so you can return home proud of who you are and what you have done.

Those who find themselves unable to conduct themselves within the guidelines listed above may expect:

- To explain their actions to the adults in charge.
- To accept the consequences of their actions.
- To possibly be sent home immediately at their own expense.
- To possibly be excluded from participation in a future 4-H event/trip.
- To have the adults in charge notify parents/guardians, Extension staff and others to see that the actions taken in case of unacceptable behavior are appropriate for all concerned.

Permission and Release

I understand that the above named individual will be participating in the New Hampshire 4-H program. The activities include active, hands-on activities that occur at local, county and statewide venues. We understand the responsibilities, hazards, and dangers inherent in participation in the program, including transportation. It is the policy of UNH Cooperative Extension never to sell or share information with outside agencies. We may share information with other 4-H Leaders or UNH staff within the county or state for the purpose of planning and promoting events.

We hold harmless the University of New Hampshire, its trustees, officers, agents, employees, and volunteers from and against all claims, demands, actions, and causes of action for damages which may be sustained by the above named youth or anyone else. This includes personal injury, death or property damage, whether or not the result of negligent acts or omissions on the part of the University of New Hampshire. If the above named youth's participation in the activity causes damage to the property at which the event is taking place, we agree to pay the property owner for such loss.
