

Dr. Anthony W. D'Amato, Rubenstein School of Environment and Natural Resources, University of Vermont, 204e Aiken Center, 81 Carrigan Drive, Burlington, VT 05405, 802-656-8030, awdamato@uvm.edu

Education

Ph.D., Forest Resources (2006), University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA.

M.S., Forest Science (2002), Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR.

B.S., Forest Ecosystem Science (2000), University of Maine, Orono, ME.

Employment

2015-present, Associate Professor and Forestry Program Chair, Rubenstein School of Natural Resources, University of Vermont.

2015-present, Adjunct Professor, Department of Forest Resources, University of Minnesota.

2012-2014, Associate Professor, Department of Forest Resources, University of Minnesota.

2007-2012, Assistant Professor, Department of Forest Resources, University of Minnesota.

2006-2007, Postdoctoral Fellow, Dept. of Natural Resources Conservation, Univ. Massachusetts

2002-2006, Research Assistant, Harvard Forest, Harvard University/University of Massachusetts

Relevant Teaching Experience

Nine years of teaching experience in the Department of Forest Resources, University of Minnesota (2007-2014) and Rubenstein School of Natural Resources and Environment, University of Vermont (2015-present), including undergraduate and graduate courses in silviculture (9 semesters), applied ecology (6 semesters), forest measurements (3 semesters), community analysis (1 semester) and forest stand dynamics (4 semesters); and direct supervision of 18 M.S. students, 7 Ph.D. students, and 8 post-doctoral associates.

Relevant Outreach Activities

USFS National Advanced Silviculture Program (NASP): Lake States local module. Houghton, MI and Cloquet, MN (2010, 2012, 2015); NASP–Region 9 Silviculture Certification Panel, Panel Member (2013, 2016); Silvicultural strategies in Vermont's changing forest–northern hardwoods (webinar), UVM Extension, Presenter (2015); Climate-informed management workshop, UMN Sustainable Forests Education Cooperative (SFEC), Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2014); Adaptive Forest Management Workshop, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2013); Black ash silviculture field day, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2013); Certificate Course in Ecosystem Silviculture: Application of Ecological Classification Systems to Management, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2011, 2013); Intermediate Stand Treatments Mixed Species Field Day, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2011); Adaptive Management in the Face of Climate Change, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2012); Intermediate Stand Treatments Workshop, SFEC, Workshop Co-Organizer and Instructor (2010).

Professional Activities

Professional society service: Forest and Range Ecology Working Group, Society of American Foresters (SAF), Chair-elect/Chair, 2009-present; Education Development Committee, Minnesota Chapter of SAF, Chair, 2010; Education Advisory Committee, Sustainable Forestry Education Cooperative, Member 2009-2014; North Woods Working Group, Upper Midwest and Great Lakes Landscape Conservation Cooperative, Co-Chair, 2013-2015; New England SAF, Forest Science Coordinator, 2015-present; Green Mountain Division of SAF, Education Chair, 2015-present; Program Co-Chair, 2016 SAF National Convention.

Honors and Awards

University of Minnesota (UMN) Newman Art of Teaching Award (2011), UMN College of Food, Agricultural, and Natural Resources Sciences Distinguished Teaching Award (2012), UMN Council of Graduate Students Outstanding Faculty Award (2014), Minnesota Department of Natural Resources Division of Forestry Award of Excellence (2014), and Harvard Forest, Harvard University Charles Bullard Fellowship in Forest Research (2014).